ENSURING FAIR RECRUITMENT FOR REALISING HUMAN POTENTIAL AND SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT

27 February 2019

1:15 - 2:30 PM

Conference Room 6, UNHQ

The Global Compact for Safe, Orderly and Regular Migration (GCM) includes objectives on facilitating fair recruitment and investing in skills development, and facilitating mutual recognition of skills and skills matching. These objectives are closely linked and form an important part of the ILO's effort to contribute to improving the governance of labour migration.

This event will inform participants on the implementation efforts of these GCM objectives based on experience and good practice from different parts of the world. The event will reflect the point of view of different stakeholders - policy makers, workers' and employers' representatives, and women and men migrant workers and share technical knowledge, as well as practical experience.
