Climate Change, Human Rights & Mobility:

A multi-stakeholder dialogue for inclusive, sustainable and human rights-based solutions.

Climate change and environmental degradation cause complex social, economic and human rights challenges, and exacerbate inequalities. Yet current responses often lack coordination between the players involved, while global responses tend to overlook the specific needs of local communities and fail to adopt a sufficiently intersectional approach.

The event aims to create a space for dialogue between representatives of local government, civil society, youth and academic experts, to foster effective coordination, share alternative perspectives and catalyse concrete action.
